Salem, Columbiana Co,
O.

My dear Friend,

164

Will you please to send the Liberator henceforth to Salem for me, and request my friends, thro' the medium of your Paper, to address their communications for me, Salem, Columbiana Co, Ohio.

The remainder of my family is now leaving Ohio Co, and soon we shall all be together in this beautiful and happy place. We are delighted with Salem very much.

Did you notice an extract from a speech of mine in the Beye, in reply to James Cartzells attack on the Abolitionists, in the late discussion held with him at Salem? I thought you might feel disposed to publish one of the paragraphs. If you have not seen the speech, I will send you a Copy. It would, if published, let my English friends in America see what my views and feelings are with regard to Slavery and the abolitionists.

Your October visit is looked forward to by the People of Ohio and Michigan with a great deal of interest. You will have some large Meetings, if the weather prove favorable. We have just had the Anniversary of W. A. S. in Salem. The attendance was very large. No building was sufficient to hold all that crowd. You have no need to be informed that the cause of freedom is advancing. The dawn of a better day has come. The light is spreading; the darkness is receding. The banners of the light are full of hope. The banners of the night are very uneasy.

Our family are all well, and all join in love to you and your family, and in best wishes for your health and happiness, and for the success and triumph of your noble labours. Yours very affectly Joseph Barker.
